Official Diary

Friday, 6 March 1953

1. Following the morning meeting discussed briefly with Mr. Dulles developments with respect to Stalin's illness and death.

2. Also discussed with the DCI the action that should be taken as a result of the security violation reported by [REDACTED] It was agreed that Mr. Dulles would speak to the individual in question and would undertake corrective measures.

3. Expressed to the DCI my dissatisfaction with the scope of the estimate being prepared on the implications of Stalin's death and undertook to express my views by memorandum. This was later done.

4. Attended IAD's luncheon.

5. [REDACTED] raised the question of whether it would be suitable to have [REDACTED] I could see no objection and later ascertained that the DCI approved.
